12th November 2016 Junior v Parents, East Pier West Bay 12:00 - 3:00pm

This year's event enjoyed relatively kind weather compared to last year's event which had to be postponed due to severe gales with the follow up being fished in bitterly cold conditions. Sea conditions were quite rough and heavily coloured on the East Pier at West Bay after rain and a blow up during the week, but calmed considerably by the start of the match. Fishing was restricted to the East Pier and Harbour wall for the junior match consisting of 4 junior members and 14 adults. Fishing was very quiet for the first part of the match but as the tide made Jack Parkman kicked off proceedings with a modest flounder; senior member Ollie Mears soon followed up with a sizeable pout which put the adults in the lead. Fishing picked up a little with a steady stream of fish coming to the scales with pout the predominant species with flounder, pollack, rockling and a small bull huss also showing. Ollie Mears's bull huss turned out to be the heaviest fish of the match but was under the Angling Trust's minimum size with sizeable fish taking precedence. All fish were returned after capture.

As the match continued the juniors slipped back into the lead with Jack Parkman landing sizeable pout and flounders with junior member (and previous winner) Ewan Chambers moving into second spot, also with a nice flounder. It looked set for a first and second for the juniors right up to the Clayton but Hugh Rathbone wound in a sizeable three-hearded rockling at the very end of the match which secured him second place.

After the match all the competitors and their families returned to the Sailhouse for refreshments where an excellent buffet provided by the Punch and Judy Bakery was enjoyed. This event includes the first match of the Jurassic League, the Junior Shore Festival and the Juniors V Parents Open (J v P) re first the presentation for the junior match took place. The first Jurassic match in a series of 4 was comfortably won by Jack Parkman with a catch including 2 sizeable fish, a pout and 2 flounders; full results below. On to the overall match and the J v P trophy also went to Jack Parkman and as best junior he also secured the Junior Shore Festival trophy. The senior prize for best junior member v child fisherman was the Clayton Cup which remains listed below. Many congratulations to Jack Parkman as he is only the second junior to win the J v P trophy since the event began.
